

German Wine Society

Annual Conference and Business Meeting, Atlanta, GA, Friday-Sunday, May 16-18, 2003

Information Sheet

Headquarters for Conference
Sheraton Colony Square Hotel
188 14th Street NE
Atlanta, GA 30361
To reserve a room, call the hotel at 404-892-6000 and mention German Wine Society to get the special room rate of $79 plus tax.

Friday

Reception, German Cultural Center and Goethe Institut-Atlanta

1197 Peachtree St. NE
Colony Square, Plaza Level
Showcasing the broad spectrum of German wines from most wine regions; dry to sweet; red, white and sparkling; food will be Artisan cheeses, charcuterie, fruit and fresh-baked bread from Harry's Farmers Market, famous in Atlanta for its fine selection of gourmet foods and wines

Saturday-Sunday Events at the Sheraton Hotel

Saturday, May 17th

9:30-11:30 a.m.

Wine Tasting Seminar with Valckenberg Estates
"Comparison of the 2001 and 2002 Vintages"

Speaker: Julie Swift, Valckenberg International
With all the acclaim for the great 2001 vintage in Germany, there is great interest in how the 2002 vintage will compare. Wines from the fine Valckenberg Estates as examples of the regional differences. Prediction: Another excellent vintage is on its way.

Luncheon/Wine Presentation

12:30-2 p.m.

For details, see the web site,
www.germanwinesociety.org.

Wine Seminar/Tasting

"The Varied Wines of Wuerttemberg"

2:30-4:30 p.m.

Speaker: Mark Bachman

Co-owner of International Boutique Wines

Often overlooked among the more popular wine regions, Wuerttemberg has a great variety of interesting wines -- red, white and sparkling. Of the reds, especially Lemberger, Trollinger and Spaetburgunder appeal to those who claim they don't even like red wines. A comprehensive tour of wines of this region.

Annual Business Meeting

5 p.m.

Reception and Wine Banquet

7 p.m.: Reception

7:30 p.m. Dinner

For details, see the web site,
www.germanwinesociety.org.

Sunday, May 18

Buffet Brunch with Sekt

11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.

For details, see the web site,
www.germanwinesociety.org.